Many are with me but still I'm alone
I'm king of the dead – and I make my throne
On a monument slab of marble cold
And my sceptre of rule is the spade I hold
Come they from cottage or come they from hall
Mankind are my subjects – all, all, all
Let them loiter in pleasure, or toilfully spin –
I gather them in! I gather them in!

4

I gather them in – and their final rest
Is here down here in the earth's dark breast
And the sexton ceased – for the funeral train
Wound mutely o'er that solemn plain
And I said to my heart – when time is told
A mightier voice than that sexton's old
Will sound o'er the last trump's dreadful din –
I gather them in! I gather them in!

Love can never more grow old,
Locks may lose their brown and gold;
Cheeks may fade and hollow grow,
But the hearts that love will know
Never, never winter's frost and chill:
Summer warmth is in them still—
Never winter's frost and chill,
Summer warmth is in them still.—Cho.

Love is always young and fair,—
What to us is silver hair,
Faded cheeks, or steps grown slow,
To the heart that beats below?
Since I kissed you mine alone, alone
You have never older grown—
Since I kissed you mine alone,
You have never older grown.—Cho.

THIRD EDITION.

SPIDER AND THE FLY.

Words by Jesse Hutchinson.

MODERATO.

"Will you walk in to my parlour," said the Spider to the Fly, "Tis the prettiest little parlour that ev er you did spy: My floors are car-pet-ed so nice with vel vets soft and clean, So just walk in my lit tle Fly, and I'll treat you like a Queen. Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk in, Mister Fly? Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk in, Mister Fly?

ped.
Why stay you in the cold with_out ex pos'd to eve_ry storm, When in my palace you can find a shel_ter snug and warm? Full ma_ny a Fly I've welcom'd here from out the chi_ly rain, And such at_tachments do they form they ne'er go out a_gain.

3

I love to gaze upon you now, you charming little Fly,
Your golden wings and modest brow, your bright and flashing eye;
And then you sing your dulcet songs, so merrily and free,
I only wish you'd just hop in, and sing your songs to me.
Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk in, Mister Fly? &c.

The silly Fly, with vaunting pride flew near the palace door,
So charmed was he with flattering words he ne'er had heard before,
The Spider bade him welcome in, with wide extended arms,
And gently patting on his back he lavished him with charms.
Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk in, Mister Fly? &c.

5

And now the silken cords of love were gently wove around,
Till close within the Spider's grasp the little Fly was bound.
Too late he sought to fly away, but the Spider held him fast,
And then he laughed ha! ha! my boy, I've caught you sir at last!
Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk in, Mister Fly? &c.

The moral here is very clear, and warns us to beware,
The lying and the flattering tongue, which charm but to ensnare;
And when temptation falsely says "Thou shalt not surely die,"
First call to mind this little song — of the Spider and the Fly.
Will you, will you, will you, will you, walk OUT Mister Fly
Will you, will you, will you, will you, keep OUT Mister Fly.

proud-ly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming, Whose broad stripes & bright stars thro' the pe--ri--lous fight O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gal-lant-ly streaming, And the rf rockets red glare the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof thro' the night that our flag still was there: O! say does that star spangled ban--ner yet wave, O'er the

2

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dead silence reposes
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep
As it fitfully blows half conceals half discloses;
Now it catches the gleam, of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines in the stream,
And the star spangled banner O! long may it wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

3

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country shall leave us no more,
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps pollution
No refuge could save, the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave
And the star spangl'd banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their lov'd home, and the wars desolation,
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land,
Praise the pow'r that hath made and preserv'd us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto— In God is our trust;
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

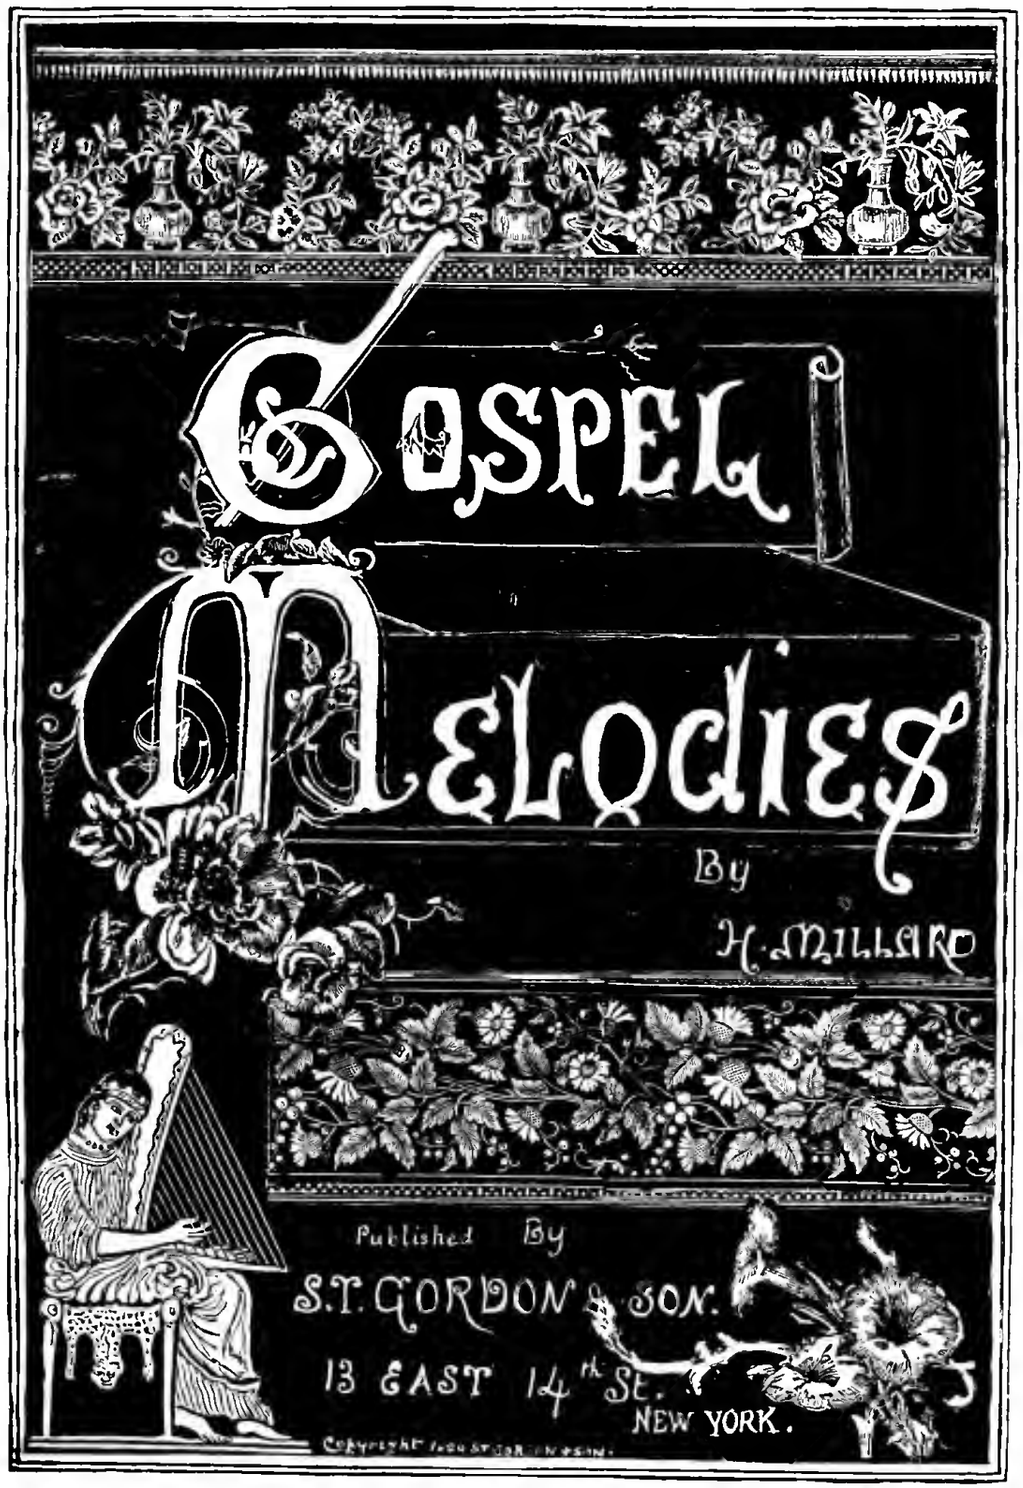
GOSPEL MELODIES.

BY

H. MILLARD, the Popular Composer.



SIMILAR in style and character to "GOSPEL HYMNS," so long used in Gospel Meetings, both in this country and abroad, but is all new and fresh. The music in "GOSPEL MELODIES" is of a high order, although not difficult.

It will be found both pleasing and useful, and in every respect worthy of Mr. Millard's reputation as the most popular song writer of the day 100 ENTIRELY NEW, (and 28 standard Hymns). Every one is written with special regard to the requirements of Evangelical meetings, services of song &c., and well adapted to awaken interest in Gospel Singing.

The words are full of Gospel Truth, which will lose none of its potency in these soul-stirring songs.

THE MUSICAL

CURRICULUM

BY GEO. F. ROOT.

THIS is emphatically a new book in a new field. It provides instruction and music, not only for the PIANO-FORTE, but also for the things that should be studied with it, viz: the VOICE and HARMONY—not harmony through the eye, but harmony through the ear; not dry calculations, but living and beautiful forms. It goes on the plan that the pupil should know as well the chords and harmonies he is in while playing and singing, as he does the key or kind of time; and moreover it proves that these things can be done by preparing well for each subject, and then by adapting the instruction, and the music to the state of the pupil, and making the steps succeed each other in true progressive order.

The whole book may be divided into two kinds of lessons—the one for musical culture and the other for muscular culture. Not that there is no practice for the muscles in the former, nor exercise for the musical taste in the latter, but each is devoted mainly to its own object. Those lessons which are designed to awaken, develop, and strengthen a love for music, and with which are imparted a knowledge of time, tune, and expression, (Rhythmics, Melodics, and Dynamics,) are written in many pleasant and tuneful forms, and are called exercises, pieces, songs, études, solfeggios, etc., while those which are simply for the development and strengthening of the muscles of the fingers, hands, and vocal organs, do not pretend to be pleasant or tuneful, but depend upon the benefits they confer in the way of flexibility and execution, for their popularity. These lessons are called TECHNICS, and embrace five finger exercises, scales, arpeggios, and miscellaneous exercises of many kinds and forms.

The contents of the book may be summed up as follows:

Instrumental exercises for reading music, the acquirement of musical knowledge, and the cultivation of the taste: numbered, but bearing no other names than the topics they illustrate and teach	231
Vocal exercises and solfeggios for similar purposes	18
TECHNICS	119
Divided as follows—Five Finger Exercises	28
Scales, Major and Minor	15
Arpeggios, Major and Minor	16
Vocal	15
Miscellaneous	35
Piano lessons that may be played as duets and trios	41
Chromatic exercises	21
Songs	39
Exercises in Thorough Bass	21
Pieces for the Piano	33
Of the foregoing numbers, are used for the study of transposition	120
These, when played according to direction, increase the lessons in the book to	1485

ANSWER TO

"WONT YOU TELL ME WHY ROBIN."

WORDS AND MUSIC BY CLARIBEL.

claim your hand at vil - lage dance But turn a - - side with gloom - y? glance What need have I the truth to tell To you who know it all so well, What need have I the truth to tell To you who know it all so well.

You've play'd upon my hopes and fears,
My love that grew with fleeting years;
At times you've wiled away my pain,
Too soon you'd frown it back again.
The while, you gaily smiled alike
On Alan Leonard and on Mike,
Till I, but there's no need to tell
The cause of all you know so well.
Till I, etc. —

3.

Im wiser now, I know 'tis vain
To live in that fond dream again;
To sigh, to hope, to rue the pow'r
Of moods that change with ev'ry hour.
Yet if you'li show good cause, that I Should answer to your "Tell me why,"
I wont refuse the truth to tell,
Although you know it all to well.
I wont refuse, etc. —

SELECT LIST OF NEW AND POPULAR VOCAL MUSIC,

Published by HENRY TOLMAN & CO., 291 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.

Weeping Sad and Lonely; or, When this Cruel War is Over. H. Tucker. 25

Since the days of "Old Folks at Home," no Song has been issued in this Country which has attained such an immense popularity as this; it bids fair to be the most popular song ever issued in America.

When this War is Over, I will Come back to Thee. Song and Chorus. Mayer. 25

Decidedly the best reply to the most popular song of the day, "When this Cruel War is Over;" over twenty editions having been printed.

He's Watching o'er thy Mother, Song and Chorus. Mayer. 25

A beautiful and touching ballad written in reply to the popular song, "Who will care for Mother now?"

Rock me to Sleep, Mother, Song and Chorus. Mayer. 25

A pathetic appeal from a daughter to her mother, who has passed from the cold world to the happy home beyond. The sentiment is very beautiful, and the melody is exquisite. It has attained a sale of several thousands.

Angels, my Darling, will Rock thee to Sleep, Song and Chorus. Mayer. 30

Written in reply to the popular ballad "Rock me to Sleep, Mother." It is the best and most appropriate reply that has yet appeared, and is certainly the most successful; over thirty thousand copies having been sold.

Is that Mother Bending o'er me? Song and Chorus. Mayer. 30

Seldom do we find a popular song of so refined a character as this; the sentiment is positively beautiful, the melody is easy and graceful, and the chorus is very effective. The ballad was founded on the following incident.

"Among the many brave and uncomplaining soldiers who were brought up from the battle of Fredericksburg, was a bright eyed, intelligent young man, or boy, rather, of sixteen years, who belonged to a northern regiment. He appeared more affectionate and tender than his comrades, and attracted a good deal of attention from the attendants and visitors. Manifestly the pet of some household, he longed for nothing so much as the arrival of his mother, who was expected, for he knew he was mortally wounded, and failing fast. Ere she arrived, however, he died. But he thought she had come, for while a kind lady visitor was wiping the death sweat from his brow, as his sight was failing, he rallied a little, like an expiring taper in its socket, looked up longingly, and joyfully, and in the tenderest pathos, whispered quite audibly, "Is that Mother?" in tones that drew tears from every eye. Then drawing her towards him with all his feeble power, he nestled his head in her arms like a sleeping infant, and thus died with the sweet word of "Mother" on his quivering lips."

Break it Gently to my Mother, Song and Chorus. Buckley. 30

This ballad was suggested by the following incident.—On the battle-field of Gettysburg, among many of our wounded soldiers, was a young man, the only son of an aged mother. Hearing the surgeon tell his companions that he could not survive the ensuing night, he placed his hand upon his forehead, talked continually of his mother and sister, and his last words to his comrades assembled around him were, "Break it gently to my Mother." This beautiful song is nightly encored at the concerts of Buckley's Serenaders in this city.

It is one of those deeply touching strains, which brings tears to the eyes and touches the strongest hearts. It is quite effective, not difficult, and comes within the compass of ordinary voices.

The Stars and Stripes of Old, Song and Chorus. Mayer. 25

A soul-stirring patriotic song; the music is an adaptation of the "Bonnie Blue Flag."

Ode to the Brave, Quartette. Mayer. 25

Very appropriate for Military Funerals.

'T is Growing very Dark, Mother, Song and Chorus. Buckley. 30

A ballad suggested by the dying words of one of our noble young volunteers; the sentiment, which is sweet and beautiful, appeals directly to the sympathies of those who have lost a friend or a relative, in defending the rights of their country.

Tell me, is my Father coming Home? Song and Chorus. Buckley. 30

This charming ballad is founded on a touching incident connected with the war. It is one of the most successful songs of the season, several editions having been printed in a short space of time.

Kiss me Mother ere I Die, Song and Chorus. Buckley. 30

The dying words of a youthful soldier are touchingly portrayed both by words and music.

The War is nearly Over, Song and Chorus. Buckley. 25

Companion to "When this Cruel War is over." The words are of a cheerful character, the melody is easy and flowing.

When Johnny Comes Marching Home, Song and Chorus. Lambert. 30

A song for home, the camp, and the concert room. It is sung and performed with unbounded success nightly, at the entertainments of all the Minstrel Troupes, Old Folks Troupes, and the Hutchinson Family, Gilmore's Band, &c.

Read me a Letter from Home, Song and Chorus. Barton. 30

An easy and pleasing song, the words of an invalid soldier, who requests his attendant to read him tidings from the loved ones at home.

Can I go, Dearest Mother? Ballad. Covert. 30

This is, unquestionably, the best production of its favorite author. The sentiment cannot fail to suit those who admire the patriotism of our noble youth who have risked their lives in defence of our common country.

"I have written to you, mother with a consciousness of right
I am thinking of you fondly, with a loyal heart to-night:
When I have your noble bidding, which shall tell me to press on,
I will come and kiss you mother, come and kiss you, and be gone.
In the sacred name of Freedom, and my country as her due,
In the name of Law and Justice, I have written this to you.
I am eager, anxious, longing to resist my country's foe;
Shall I go, my dearest mother? tell me, mother, Shall I go?"

Mother is the Battle over? Ballad. Roefs. 25

An affecting ballad suitable for tenor or soprano.

O, Kiss me ere I Sleep, Sister, Song and Chorus. Ballard. 30

This most beautiful and affecting song, was founded on the following incident.

On a train, recently, which left Chicago, on the Pittsburg R. R., was a young lady from Albany, N. Y., the only sister of a pale and emaciated invalid, who lay on a couch in the sleeping car. About four years since, he left his home for Kanzas, and toiled there till he fell sick with the consumption. He sent at last for his sister, (his only living relative,) a girl of about twenty years. She visited him; soon he determined to return home. They started, but it was too much for his wasted energies, and at Chicago he was carried into the car, as if he were an unconscious infant. As he lay there, pale and coughing, it was beautiful to see with what sisterly devotion she watched beside him; she gently smoothed back his damp hair, and softly kissed him as she bent over him. About one o'clock, he asked her the hour. She told him. A few moments later, he reached out his skeleton hand to place within her own, and whispered, "Kiss me sister, before I sleep;" and closed his eyes. Soon his head fell gently on one side, as if sleeping; but he slept the "sleep, from which none ever wakes to weep."

I am Dreaming, Fondly Dreaming. Buckley. 30

In Dreams thou 'rt Ever Near. " 30

Two excellent ballads by this favorite song writer.

Where I met my Norah Dear, Song and Chorus. Thompson. 30

Mr. Thompson's ballads, "Lilly Dale," "Annie Lisle," &c., have become "household words." The above song, his latest effort, bids fair to rival its predecessors.

Laura Haunts my Fancy Still. Gilmore. 30

The most successful song of the author since his "Good news from Home." Several editions have been sold.

Just Twenty Years Ago, Song and Chorus. Lambert. 30

Sung by the popular balladist, Wm. Hayward. One of the best melodies adapted for parlor or concert use.

WHIP-POOR-WILL'S SONG.

A BALLAD.

Composed by H. MILLARD,
Author of "Viva l'America," "Why does my heart still sigh," etc.

[The Echo of the Whip-poor-will may be repeated by another voice at a distance, or in another room, with very fine effect.]

Allegretto.

1. Oh, meet me when day-light is fad - ing, And is dark-en-ing in - to the night; When song-birds are singing their ves - pers, And the day has far vanished from sight; And then I will tell to you, dar- ling, All the love I have cherished so long, If you will but meet me at evening, When you hear the first whip-poor-will's song. . . . .

Whip-poor-will! Whip-poor-will! You hear the first whip-poor-will's song; Oh, meet me; oh, 8va
Echo. Echo.

2

'Tis said that whatever sweet feelings
May be throbbing within a fond heart,
When list'ning to whip-poor-will's singing,
For a twelve-month will never depart;
So then we will meet in the woodland,
Far away from the hurrying throng,
And whisper our love to each other,
When we hear the first whip-poor-will's song.

Whip-poor-will, &c.

3

And in the long years of the future,
Though our duties may part us awhile,
And on the return of this evening,
We be severed by many a mile;
Yet deep in our bosoms we'll cherish
The affection, so fervent and strong,
We pledged to each other this evening,
When we heard the first whip-poor-will's song.

days! Ashamed of Je - - sus! sooner, far, Let night dis-own each radiant star. 'Tis midnight with my soul till He, Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee. Ashamed of Je - - sus! Oh, as soon Let morning blush to own the sun. He sheds the beams of light di- vine O'er this be-night - - ed soul of mine.

Ashamed of Je - - - sus! that dear friend On whom my hopes of heav'n depend? No; when I blush, be this my shame, That I no more re- vere his name. Ashamed of Je - - - sus! empty pride; I'll boast a Sav - - - iour cru- ci-fied. And, oh, may this my por - tion be, My Sav - iour not ashamed of me! Je - sus! and shall it ev - er be, A mor - tal man ashamed of Thee! Ashamed of Thee, whom an - gels praise, Whose glo- ries shine thro' end-less days!

CATALOGUE NUMBER THREE.

CHOICE CATALOGUE OF VERY POPULAR MUSIC

Published by OLIVER DITSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

NOTE —All the pieces in the Catalogues numbered 1, 2, 3, and 4, have an established reputation, and consequently any person ordering from these lists will be sure of getting Taking and Popular pieces. Any of the numbers of these Catalogues can be had on application.

ABBREVIATIONS.—Pieces and songs are numbered from 1 to 7, according to difficulty. The easiest pieces, for beginners, like many by Bellak, are marked 1. Common Marches, Quicksteps, Waltzes, &c., are 2. More difficult dance music, like most of that of Strauss, and such marches as the March from Faust, are 3. Pieces about as difficult as "The Maiden's Prayer" are 4; somewhat more difficult pieces are 5; such ones as Thalberg's "Sweet Home" are 6, and the more difficult pieces of Chopin, Liszt, Thalberg, &c., are 7.

A capital letter marks the key, as, B, C sharp, D♭, &c. A small Roman letter marks the highest note (of a vocal piece), if on the staff, but an Italic letter is used, if the note is above the staff. Ch. means that the song has a Chorus.
